

Features

Choosing Lansing: Dylan and Jeana-Dee Rogers

ALLISON MONROE | WEDNESDAY, MARCH 27, 2013

DYLAN & JEANA-DEE - PHOTO DAVE TRIUMPIE

RELATED IMAGES

ENLARGE

ENLARGE

ENLARGE

ENLARGE

The home of Dylan and Jeana-Dee Rogers reflects their many hobbies and passions. A "Happy Michigan" sign hangs above their couch. Their refrigerator is in their dining room, displaced because of the DIY renovation of the wood floor in the kitchen. A display case of pipes hangs by the door and almost everything in the house is "thrifted."

The happy, Michigan couple is becoming quite well known around the area for their many contributions to the art and music scenes in Lansing, but also, Jeana-Dee laughs, "for our manner of dress and our dancing skills." It's also quite likely that, should you be in the Eastside neighborhood of Lansing, you will see them riding their yellow, tandem bike (complete with sparkly lights), enjoying a pipe on their front porch, or burning a tree in their backyard with friends (which they do have a burn permit for).

A "Force" Comes to Lansing

Dylan describes Jeana-Dee as an "overall force in Lansing." She laughs and says he is being ridiculous. But if you take a look at what Jeana-Dee has done, and is doing, in Lansing, it's not really that ridiculous.

While Dylan grew up on the South side, it took

SHARE THIS PAGE

Like 412 people like this. Be the first of your friends.

Share Tweet SHARE 8+1 Email

SIGN UP NOW GIVE US YOUR EMAIL AND WE WILL GIVE YOU OUR WEEKLY ONLINE MAGAZINE. FAIR? Subscribe

Top 10 Feature Stories

Mingle: creating a space for Lansing's diverse array of young professionals

How do new residents connect with other young professionals in the Capital region? Mingle is an up-and-coming new networking group that is dedicated to creating a fun, friendly, and encouraging environment for young professionals from diverse backgrounds.

- How smart of a city is Lansing?
- Shift to urban living kindles interest in leading the tiny life
- What makes a city 'smart,' anyway?
- Restoration, incubation and the return of the Knapp's Building
- Lansing Maker Week: Providing a venue for garage-style innovators, creators and entrepreneurs
- Eaton Rapids eyes riverfront development with adaptive reuse of historic property
- Teaching kids to shape a healthy future for Lansing's rivers
- Lansing's Own Beer Hound
- Lansing Beer Week: Where beer gets paired with chocolate and more!

VIEW ALL FEATURE STORIES